LandPAC Contribution Request Questionnaire

To assist CLCA's Political Action Committee ("LAND-PAC") in making a decision on your campaign contribution request, please fill out and return this form with a copy of the event invitation to CLCA Headquarters. Fax it to (916) 830-2788 or e-mail it to sandragiarde@clca.org.

Current Office Held (if any): State Office Sought: Date/Place of Event: Amount Requested: Mail Check to: Committee Me Event RSVP should be handled by: CLCA Myself CLCA Members Attending: (The CLCA member requesting the contribution is responsible for recruiting other members to attend the event if the contribution amount covers the attendance of more than one individual at the event. Following the event itself, the same member is required to submit a list to CLCA Headquarters of the individuals who actually attended the event.) 1. Briefly describe your relationship with the candidate. How long have you known the candidate? What is the nature of the relationship (business, professional, or personal)? 2. How does this candidate's views on public policy issues compare to CLCA's priorities particularly in the areas of contractor licensing, water policy, and business taxation and regulation? How has the candidate demonstrated his or her support for CLCA's priority issues through past actions or votes on legislation?	Candidate's Name:
Date/Place of Event: Amount Requested: Mail Check to: Committee Me Event RSVP should be handled by: CLCA Myself CLCA Members Attending: (The CLCA member requesting the contribution is responsible for recruiting other members to attend the event if the contribution amount covers the attendance of more than one individual a the event. Following the event itself, the same member is required to submit a list to CLCA Headquarters of the individuals who actually attended the event.) 1. Briefly describe your relationship with the candidate. How long have you known the candidate? What is the nature of the relationship (business, professional, or personal)? 2. How does this candidate's views on public policy issues compare to CLCA's priorities particularly in the areas of contractor licensing, water policy, and business taxation and regulation? How has the candidate demonstrated his or her support for CLCA's priority issues.	Current Office Held (if any):
Date/Place of Event: Amount Requested: Mail Check to: Committee Me Event RSVP should be handled by: CLCA Myself CLCA Members Attending: (The CLCA member requesting the contribution is responsible for recruiting other members to attend the event if the contribution amount covers the attendance of more than one individual a the event. Following the event itself, the same member is required to submit a list to CLCA Headquarters of the individuals who actually attended the event.) 1. Briefly describe your relationship with the candidate. How long have you known the candidate? What is the nature of the relationship (business, professional, or personal)? 2. How does this candidate's views on public policy issues compare to CLCA's priorities particularly in the areas of contractor licensing, water policy, and business taxation and regulation? How has the candidate demonstrated his or her support for CLCA's priority issues	State Office Sought:
Amount Requested: Mail Check to: Committee Me Event RSVP should be handled by: CLCA Myself CLCA Members Attending: (The CLCA member requesting the contribution is responsible for recruiting other members to attend the event if the contribution amount covers the attendance of more than one individual a the event. Following the event itself, the same member is required to submit a list to CLCA Headquarters of the individuals who actually attended the event.) 1. Briefly describe your relationship with the candidate. How long have you known the candidate? What is the nature of the relationship (business, professional, or personal)? 2. How does this candidate's views on public policy issues compare to CLCA's priorities particularly in the areas of contractor licensing, water policy, and business taxation and regulation? How has the candidate demonstrated his or her support for CLCA's priority issues.
Event RSVP should be handled by: OCLCA OMyself CLCA Members Attending: (The CLCA member requesting the contribution is responsible for recruiting other members to attend the event if the contribution amount covers the attendance of more than one individual a the event. Following the event itself, the same member is required to submit a list to CLCA Headquarters of the individuals who actually attended the event.) 1. Briefly describe your relationship with the candidate. How long have you known the candidate? What is the nature of the relationship (business, professional, or personal)? 2. How does this candidate's views on public policy issues compare to CLCA's priorities particularly in the areas of contractor licensing, water policy, and business taxation and regulation? How has the candidate demonstrated his or her support for CLCA's priority issues.
CLCA Members Attending: (The CLCA member requesting the contribution is responsible for recruiting other members to attend the event if the contribution amount covers the attendance of more than one individual a the event. Following the event itself, the same member is required to submit a list to CLCA Headquarters of the individuals who actually attended the event.) 1. Briefly describe your relationship with the candidate. How long have you known the candidate? What is the nature of the relationship (business, professional, or personal)? 2. How does this candidate's views on public policy issues compare to CLCA's priorities particularly in the areas of contractor licensing, water policy, and business taxation and regulation? How has the candidate demonstrated his or her support for CLCA's priority issues.	Mail Check to: Committee Me
(The CLCA member requesting the contribution is responsible for recruiting other members to attend the event if the contribution amount covers the attendance of more than one individual a the event. Following the event itself, the same member is required to submit a list to CLCA Headquarters of the individuals who actually attended the event.) 1. Briefly describe your relationship with the candidate. How long have you known the candidate? What is the nature of the relationship (business, professional, or personal)? 2. How does this candidate's views on public policy issues compare to CLCA's priorities particularly in the areas of contractor licensing, water policy, and business taxation and regulation? How has the candidate demonstrated his or her support for CLCA's priority issues	Event RSVP should be handled by: OCLCA OMyself attend the event if the contribution amount covers the attendance of more than one individual a the event. Following the event itself, the same member is required to submit a list to CLCA Headquarters of the individuals who actually attended the event.) 1. Briefly describe your relationship with the candidate. How long have you known the candidate? What is the nature of the relationship (business, professional, or personal)? 2. How does this candidate's views on public policy issues compare to CLCA's priorities particularly in the areas of contractor licensing, water policy, and business taxation and regulation? How has the candidate demonstrated his or her support for CLCA's priority issues	CLCA Members Attending:
particularly in the areas of contractor licensing, water policy, and business taxation and regulation? How has the candidate demonstrated his or her support for CLCA's priority issues	attend the event if the contribution amount covers the attendance of more than one individual at the event. Following the event itself, the same member is required to submit a list to CLC Headquarters of the individuals who actually attended the event.) 1. Briefly describe your relationship with the candidate. How long have you known the
	particularly in the areas of contractor licensing, water policy, and business taxation and regulation? How has the candidate demonstrated his or her support for CLCA's priority issue

3. What direct contacts have you or other CLCA she attended a CLCA chapter meeting or met per from your local chapter?
4. If the candidate is in incumbent officeholder, what are relevant to CLCA's interests? What future where he or she could influence policy decisions after the could be could	elective office might this candidate seek
5. What plans do you our your local CLCA chapter with the candidate?	r have to build on your current relationship
Name:
Signature:
Date:	