CODE OF ETHICS

The California Landscape Contractors Association has adopted a code of ethics to guide all members. CLCA contractor members will be required to abide by the code. These requirements are:

- Professionalism: Maintain required licensing, insurance and ongoing education.
- Values: Honesty, integrity and respect for the environment
- Committed to: Customer satisfaction and excellence in craftsmanship.

California Landscape Contractors Association™

If applying to be a Contractor Member, you agree to follow the CLCA Code of Ethics above.

5 STEP FIVE — SIGNATURE

I affirm that our dues remittance reflects our proper dues payment.

Applicant Signature: _____ Date: _____

Signature on this membership application indicates applicant's agreement to abide by the bylaws of CLCA and upon termination of membership to return to the CLCA Headquarters the membership certificate and to refrain from further use of the CLCA registered trademark or any other symbol or sign which would indicate membership.

Dues to CLCA are not deductible as a charitable contribution, but may be deductible as an ordinary and necessary business expense. A portion of dues, however, is not deductible as an ordinary and necessary business expense to the extent that CLCA engages in lobbying. The non-deductible portion of your CLCA dues is seven percent (7%).

Privacy Disclosure (please initial): _____

I understand that by providing my contact information on this form, I consent to receive communications sent by, or on behalf of, CLCA, and its subsidiaries and endorsed programs.

Your email address will be made available to CLCA chapters, members and non-member affiliates/programs. Otherwise, CLCA will not publish it, share it or sell it to anyone. More info at clca.org/privacy.
